Clarence Cheated -- But Did Society Do Right By Him?

BY PAUL DINNIS

(The following is an interpretation of what happened last week at the State Prison Farm. It is based on facts.—PED)

No doubt about it, you've thumbed your nose at society once too many times. You get caught by the law for forgery and in December of '55 they send you to the Railroad State Prison.

In May of '56 they send you down to State Prison Farm just off the Pahokee - Belle Glade road. You are one of some 350 prisoners on the farm. You've got the bulk of a three-year term left to serve, but this is a familiar setting, for you'd served another term for forgery here and were released from the farm's confines only last September.

You are Clarence Jacks, white, age 40, call Tampa and Hillsborough County home territory. You have a brother and sister living in Alabama, a daughter in Florida.

That was about a month ago. Now you are the late Clarence Jacks. You've got the authorities confused as to how your breath of life was snuffed out during the late hours of Tuesday, June 19 or early hours of Wednesday, the 20th.

One thing you know, though — your death came about without any member of society looking after you in your sickness during those months which were fleeting moments of life or death.

In the hereafter present which is now your stomping grounds you know that society failed to take any positive steps to prolong your mortal moments.

Sure, you talked with a thick tongue and walked around crazily on that Tuesday afternoon. So, supposing prison authorities' assumption that maybe you were drunk was correct? Is that any reason to put a man in your condition in solitary confinement?

Surely the experienced prison farm officials know a prisoner will go to extreme ends to satisfy one sort of craving or another. Surely they ought to be a little suspicious if you appear drunk. Wouldn't they maybe assume that if you were drunk (Continued On Page 8)

BG SETS DATE FOR $200,000 BOND SALES FOR RECREATION

BELLE GLADE — The long-awaited financing for the development of a well-rounded recreational program and building of a new swimming pool may be available before the summer's end, it became apparent at the regular session of the city commission Wednesday night.

Sale of the $200,000 bond issue authorized previously by the commission will be held on July 25, the commission decided at its meeting, if bids received by that date meet with the commission's approval.

Commissioner set the July 25 date upon recommendation of its fiscal agent, and after City Attorney Claude Jones indicated the bonds will likely be validated by court order about July 5th. Since the bonds are to be sold at "98 plus accrued interest" rather than at par, Jones said.

A temporary transfer of a liquor license was granted Andrew Mollo so he could operate a package liquor store at 237 SW 5th St. for 120 days while a new building in construction on his present business site. Plagued with the dilemma of owning business property with 300 feet of a church, which precludes liquor sales within that area, Mollo lamented to the session that "an honest guy has a rough deal in the liquor business — and I'm an honest guy."

Commission finally okayed a drive out on island, according to photographer Averill. In background is Kramer Island and at top is Bacon Point.

Crosby Submits Plans For Multi Duplex Housing Units

PAHOKEE — Discussion of a proposed duplex housing development for 61 Negro family units occupied most of the time at a comparatively short session Monday night of the Pahokee city council.

Plan for the development was presented by Raymond O. Crosby, but no action was taken pending further investigation to determine if the project can be made to conform to zoning classification.

Area of the project is the triangular plot south of East Lake School bounded by Lake Street, McClure Road and Rardin Avenue. It was a sizeable bone of contention when the school board desired to purchase it and when a previous city council refused it according to Crosby's wish.

Referring to Mayor Parrish's proposal to extend tax exemptions on new buildings, Council President George Tucker, Jr., said no decisions would be reached by the council until all councilmen were present. Interested parties will be advised before a decision is made.

Waterfront Fireworks Display On The Fourth

PAHOKEE — The traditionally spectacular Fourth of July fireworks display sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce is again expected to attract holiday-minded citizens of Okeechobee to the natural amphitheatre of Pahokee Harbor next Wednesday evening.

The evening entertainment will get underway at 7 p.m. with a musical program by the Chamber of Commerce Quartet, featuring vocalists "Babs," Sheldon and Osceola Upthegrove and "Burr" Walker, with Junior Martin at the piano. An appropriate Fourth of July talk will be given.

At 8 p.m., the fireworks display will be presented. Supervising the actual firing of the pyrotechnics will be veteran Minn Carpenter, of Belle Glade.

Included in the multi-colored fireworks will be rockets, spinning wheels, bomb-sprays, Niagara Falls, and a symbolic display — an American flag display against the background of darkness.

With the scheduled boat and ski exhibition cancelled due to low water level, the Fourth afternoon still may see plenty of water sports activities by local enthusiasts simply out for a good time, according to F. S. "Cherry" Parrish, president of the Chamber of Commerce.

An additional one-cent federal tax will be slapped on the purchase of each gallon of gasoline beginning Sunday. Nearly half of what you pay for gas in Florida will go toward taxes. Seems to us the government boys need new spectacles or patterns of brain waves. Evidently they transpose letters, confuse "Taxes" with "Texas" and — like the Lone Star natives — talk bigger and bigger. Any you pay more and more. Progress!

Elsewhere in this issue we're printing data on Florida's fabulous sweet corn business. Since the Glades area grows a high percentage of the state's sweet corn, we suggest a Glades slogan or toast of welcome to visitors might well be "Ears To You!"

Palm Beach County Resources and Development Board notes it has minimum funds to compete with well-heeled Florida organizations in enticing new industries to our county. The RDB probably wishes those letters stood for Rich, Dollars and Bonanza-ish.

LET'S ALL GO TO CHICAGO: Now that Stevenson has 22 Florida delegates in his pocket — the fun has just begun. The man who handled his successful Florida campaign has been named chairman of the group. Congressman Bob Sikes. With that honor goes problems.

Here in one of Sikes' present worries. How can he "take care" of everybody who wants to go to Chicago as an "alternate"? There are a lot of strong Stevenson workers who would like to make the trip. Bob would like to reward them by making them alternates. But, each delegate has the right under law to name his own alternate. And, right off, several want to take their husband or wife.

"Sikes' problem is to "diplomatically" convince these delegates that they should help the cause by naming someone else. (Husbands and wives really don't need to be alternates to get into the convention. Sikes gets a can get "kick" matter for them.) Last time we overheard Sikes on the long-distance phone he had only four more spots to shuffle in order to make everybody happy — and to get onto his next problem — hotel rooms for all.

ON TO MOSCOW? — Does the United States want to participate in a "Worlds Fair" in Moscow? It seems that the Russians are really overboard in their efforts to propagandize their new attitude and have begun talking about a huge world's fair to be held there in 1957. The question is — will the United States participate?

Congressman Elmer Mathews has been named to a special subcommittee to study the problem and make recommendations. Since most fairs in this country center around stock shows and farm life, the Agriculture Committee landed the task or looking into the matter. The name of the subcommittee is something like this: "Agriculture Subcommittee to Study Participation in the World Trade Fair in Moscow in 1957."

WHAT'S THE GOOD WORD? "Watch out for these college professors. There is a bill before the House which deals with disaster insurance. Of particular interest to the people of Florida is that part of the bill dealing with damage from beach erosion along our coast. To be sure, the bill covered everything it should, a copy was sent to the engineers at the University of Florida.

They made a thorough study of the bill — and took several pages of typewriting to explain that the wording "wave wash" should be changed to read

Phoenix, Arizona
Greetings from the doggiest little hot-spot in the southwest! Hope my new henna hair-finish holds up 'til we get back to Pahokee. The sun in Oklahoma started it and the ultra-violet heat in Arizona is finishing it — my black little hide now has red top-hairs.

Of course, my paws are blistered from trying to walk around here in the daytime (temp.: 106 in the backyard), but what's a little blister or two when a dog can get a henna-job without dyeing?

Beyond the color of my hair, I am concerned with several things about this city in the Valley of the Sun.

For one thing, it is growing faster than anyplace in Florida, which is saying a houseful, I know.

But reaching back some years, the last time I was here, I remember that Phoenix was a neat, tiled town of date palms, oleanders and a winter-summer resident population like Florida's.

Now the place has spread out into the desert, all the way to the foot of famous Little Camelback Mountain, and people are agitating to subdivide the mountain, too.

This has raised the ruckus of all time. A few early birds already have built on the side of the mountain facing town. One house looks like a houseboat run aground, another like a dog pound (I get cold chills just passing it).

Personally, I think the Phoenixians who want to keep their mountain unaltered will win out. I hope so — imagine a dog trying to walk around the "yard" on Camelback. Come out with two legs shorter, walking all jostled.

I told the dog across the street that I was pretty impressed with the restaurants in Phoenix, because the bosses were eating so much they were getting all fat and sloppy, the way I used to be before bitter fate decreed otherwise.

Well said my neighbor here's your chance.

So he took me 'round back to his dish, which was loaded. The people he lives with had had a party the night before, and here was my neighbor boy, the fat nasty thing, all ready to eat leftover enchiladas, tortillas, and tacos. For years I thought the mysterious names were southwest desert pests.

Now I know better. I cleaned up his dish, burped politely, and headed for home. Bosses gave me a critical look (I had carelessly left a hot pepper in my chops) but said nothing.

I went off to my corner in the air-conditioned study and went

Junior Gets
"Pinned" Down

Junior Baker and friends are all set for their circus. Look for their advertisements on neighborhood trees.

The kids have had problems in staging the event. The biggest was the admission fee. Junior wanted to charge five cents. Mrs. Baker thought it would be much nicer if they charged five pins.

So Junior held a meeting with his Directors — then told his mother they'd taken her advice. The ads now read: GIANT CIRCUS IN BAKER'S BACKYARD. ADMISSION FIVE PINS PLUS FIVE CENTS TAX.

Meredith Is Mock Legislator

TALLAHASSEE — Earl Meredith from Pahokee was elected last week to the legislature of the 12th annual Boys State held on the campus of Florida State University, Tallahassee.

These legislators of the mythical state of 438 outstanding high school juniors from all parts of Florida received a week's experience in government at local and state levels.

Legislative sessions were held in the Senate and House of Representatives in the Florida capitol where the young mock members learned to draft and introduce bills, and all the legislative proceedings necessary for bills to become laws.

Florida Boys State is sponsored annually by the American Legion, with faculty members of the FSU School of Public Administration assisting in governmental training.

Grand opening of Florida's latest attraction, the Citrus Tower in Clermont, is scheduled for July 14. The tower, ranging several hundred feet above the ground, affords visitors an unusual view of the famed citrus groves of Central Florida.

New Gas Tax Starts Sunday

JACKSONVILLE — Motorists of Florida are reminded that on Sunday the federal tax on gasoline will go up one cent a gallon, as part of the $13 billion increase in federal automotive taxes enacted by Congress this year for financing the 13-year federal highway program.

Glen P. Woodard, Jr., executive secretary of the Florida Petroleum Industries Committee, says that this increase, added to the present 2-cent federal tax and the 7-cent state tax, will bring total state and federal taxes on gasoline in Florida to 10 cents a gallon. This, he adds, is equivalent to about 49 per cent sales tax on gasoline.

He said the 1-cent federal increase, expected to yield more than half a billion dollars a year nationally, will bring to about $34 million the amount of federal gas tax collected annually in Florida.

Big Rodeo At Kissimmee July 1 to 4

KISSIMMEE — Rodeo fans from throughout the southeast plus a homecoming crowd of former residents and friends of Osceola county are expected to create a record audience for four full days of the 12th annual Silver Spurs Rodeo which gets underway here on Sunday.

In addition to the rodeo and the homecoming celebration will be a Quarter Horse Jam-boree, featuring a Quarter Horse show and quarter-mile racing held under the auspices of the newly-activated Florida Quarter Horse Ass'n.

Rodeo performances are slated for 2:30 p.m. Sunday and Wednesday, and at 8 p.m. Monday and Tuesday. A gala parade through downtown Kissimmee is set for 3 p.m. Tuesday.

Weddings

Becomes Mrs. Gant In Saturday Ceremony

In an impressive candlelight ceremony at the Canal Point Baptist Church on Saturday, June 23, at 3 p.m., Miss Bobbie Ann Frierson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Perry Frierson of Canal Point, became the bride of George Albert Gant, son of Mrs. Albert Gant of Pahokee and the late Mr. Gant.

Rev. Joe G. Clements, pastor, performed the double ring ceremony. The couple repeated their vows standing before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and potted palms. The pews were marked with white satin streamers tied with heart-shaped bows.

Mrs. William McClellan, pianist, played the traditional wedding marches, as well as a program of nuptial music preceding the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was lovely in a satin ballerina-length gown overlaid with lace. The scooped neckline of the fitted bodice was trimmed with seed pearls and the long sleeves were pointed at the wrist. Her French illusion veil was attached to a tiara of seed pearls and she carried a white Bible from which flowed white satin streamers. One of the Bible was a white orchid surrounded by tiny white carnations.

The bride's honor attendant, Miss Sherron Townsend of La Belle, wore a pink net ballerina length gown with matching net headpiece dotted with tiny flowers. As bridesmaid, Miss June Gant, sister of the groom, wore an aqua net gown similar in design to that of the maid of honor. Miss Lana Frierson, sister of the bride and junior bridesmaid, wore a yellow net gown featuring a satin cummerbund with a large bow in the back. Each of the bride's attendants carried a large bouquet of pink pompons.

Lloyd Clifton served as his brother in law's best man. Roy Frierson, brother of the groom, and Billy Ray Mosley were ushers.

Mr. and Mrs. Frierson were hosts at the reception which followed the ceremony. Among those assisting were Miss Billie Nell Stokes, who served portions of the wedding cake, and Mrs. Susie Wilson, who poured the punch.

For a going-away costume, the bride chose a two-piece suit of brown and white faille with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The couple will be at home in Pahokee until the latter part of August when they will move to Miami where Mr. Gant will resume his studies in the school of medicine at the University of Miami.

Prior to the wedding the bride-elect was honored at a party and shower at the home of Mrs. Paul Rardin with Mrs. C. B. Jones, Mrs. R. T. Smith, Mrs. A. H. Scruggs and Mrs. Rardin, hostesses, at a Coke party given by Mrs. Charlotte Walton at her home with Mrs. Jess M. Elliott assisting, and at a china and kitchen shower given by Mrs. Bill Easterly, Mrs. N. Neal and Miss Barbara Phillips, also at Mrs. Walton's home.

PHILLIPS - BASS NUPTIALS IN PAHOKEE JULY 8

Final plans for the wedding of Miss Barbara Phillips, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Clark Phillips, to William T. Bass, Jr., son of Mrs. W. T. Bass, Sr., of Okeechobee, have been completed.

The ceremony will be held at the Pahokee First Baptist Church on Sunday, July 8, at 4 o'clock in the afternoon, with Rev. James E. Boyd officiating.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father. She will be attended by her sister, Mrs. Freeman W. Hodges, Jr., of Clewiston, who will be matron of honor. Miss Jessie (Bunny) Whitehurst of Belle Glade, niece of the groom, will be bridesmaid.

Troy Bass of Fort Meade will serve as his brother's best man and ushers will be Richard S. Phillips and Gerald W. Phillips, brothers of the bride.

No formal invitations are being issued but all friends and relatives of the couple are invited to both the wedding and the reception, which will be held at the Woman's Club immediately following the ceremony.

Miss Phillips was the honoree at a miscellaneous shower given recently at the home of Mrs. Joel W. Brown on E. Main St.

The bride-elect was also honored with a Coke party Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. D. W. Cunningham at 378 Bacon Point Rd., with Mrs. D. W. Cunningham and Hugo Box as assistant hostesses.

Slater Brewton of Coral Gables, former Pahokee resident, recently received his Master's degree in agriculture science at the University of Miami. Attending the graduation exercises were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brewton, their daughter Mrs. Nan Cunningham, and her son Wynn. Wynn is now visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Slater Brewton.

Miss Ball To Wed Ben E. Osking

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Ball, Jr., 566 SE First St., Belle Glade, announce the engagement of their daughter, Nancy Ann to Ben Eielson Osking of Miami, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Osking, formerly of Belle Glade, but now residing in Hatton, N.Dak.

Miss Ball graduated from Belle Glade high school in the class of 1953. She was salutatorian of her class, member of the Glee Club, Pep Club, F.H.A., and Order of Rainbow for Girls. She is a past worthy advisor of the Order of Rainbow.

After attending Florida State University at Tallahassee for two years, Miss Ball transferred to University of Miami where she is a member of the senior class, majoring in business education. She is a member of Delta Delta social sorority, and sweetheart of Phi Kappa Tau social fraternity.

Mr. Osking is a graduate of Hatton high school and was a member of the football and basketball teams. He served three years in the armed forces, airborne division, part of which was spent in Germany where he was on the staff of General Jack Gavin. He is a member of the senior class at University of Miami and will receive his degree in accounting in February. He is a member of Phi Kappa Tau social fraternity of which he is a past president, and a member of L'Apache.

A September wedding is planned.

SHOWER GIVEN FOR MISS HUMPHRIES

Miss Anna Humphries, bride-elect of David L. Peppard, Jr., of Tampa, was honored with a miscellaneous shower and party Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. Milton Wilson on Flame Ave. Guests registered at the bride's book and a door prize was given. A color theme of yellow and green was carried in decorations and refreshments.

The honoree was presented with a corsage and received many beautiful gifts. She was given a silver pastry server and cheese cutter by the hostesses, which was in Spring Glory pattern to match her silver. In addition to Mrs. Wilson, other hostesses were Mrs. G. W. Byrd, Mrs. J. P. Herring, Mrs. J. C. Schoepel and Mrs. Phillip White.

Slater Brewton of Coral Gables, former Pahokee resident, recently received his Master's degree in agriculture science at the University of Miami. Attending the graduation exercises were his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brewton, their daughter Mrs. Nan Cunningham, and her son Wynn. Wynn is now visiting his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Slater Brewton.

BG OES HONORS MS.DMS.

McKINSTRY, ROBINSON

Mrs. Jennie McKinstry of Pahokee, grand representative to West Virginia, and Mrs. Essie Robinson of Clewiston, grand representative to New Brunswick, were honored guests at the meeting last Thursday evening of Belle Glade Chapter No. 197, OES.

Following their introduction, they seated in the East. A program was given in their honor by the star point officers, with Mrs. Louise Zamp, junior past matron in charge. They were all given gifts from the chapter. Each spoke briefly on her duties and responsibilities in her office.

Joseph R. Cherry, worthy grand master of the Grand Chapter of Florida, and Mrs. Jessie Barnes of Pahokee, grand instructor of District 18 were also guests of the chapter.

It was voted to recess for the months of July, August and September, and to resume regular meetings on the first Thursday in October.

The annual Robert Morris celebration, honoring the birthday of the founder of the order was discussed, and it was voted to participate in a district celebration to be held in August in Pahokee.

Following the meeting, refreshments were served by a committee composed of Mrs. Dorothy Tucker, Mrs. Edythe Murray, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morris.

Also attending the Grand Assembly session from Belle Glade were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cherry. Mr. Cherry, worthy grand patron of the Grand Chapter of Florida, OES, served as escort for Miss Layfield at her installation as grand treasurer of the order.

TRUE STORIES OF Famous Crimes as told by JOHN LARKIN who portrays LT. DET. MIKE KARR

On a morning in August, 1888, Londoners were astounded to read about the murders of two women whose bodies were found in the dark and steaming streets of East London. They had been horribly murdered.

Every few days another woman was found similarly slain in the same way. One Londoner was told with fear by day. At night, the streets were deserted. Those who had to walk them were terrified.

Strangely, every body was dissection with surgical skill. Organs were cut out with the precision of a surgeon. It was believed to be the work of a mad medical student.

To this day many mysteries remain. Why were these women—and only women—killed? How did the murderer "get away with it" in the teeming streets of London? What was the motive? Who were his victims? Biggest question: In 1926, a dying medical man in Buenos Aires "confessed" these murders. Was he "Jack the Ripper"? —

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cross have moved from Chosen to Pahokee and are occupying their former home at 110 E. Main St.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Hillier and Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brewton last weekend were Mr. and Mrs. Woodruff Gocher of Miami, former Pahokee residents.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank E. Gillis and family were visitors in Naples last weekend.

Mrs. R. C. Lane underwent surgery Monday at Good Samaritan Hospital in West Palm Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. V. Unwin spent the weekend in Naples with their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Kyle Hatfield and family who are vacationing there for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Duncan Padgett left last week, accompanied by their grandchildren Donna Joy and little Duncan to visit their son and daughter-in-law, Rev. and Mrs. Donald Padgett, in their new home in Chiefland. The children had been visiting their grandparents for the past two weeks, while the moving was taking place. Mr. and Mrs. Padgett went on to Gainesville and spent Thursday night with their other son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Padgett, who are attending summer school at the university. They arrived home Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Slauter and family left last week for a three week vacation. En route they planned to visit her sister, Mrs. Mac Weaver, in Atlanta, Ga.; her aunt, Mrs. Nell Barnett, in Athens, Tenn.; and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Slauter in Spiceland, Ind. They will spend the remainder of the time in Lorain, O., with his son, Ronald Slauter and family.

Mrs. Ruby Chaney will leave next week for Hendersonville, N.C. to visit her sons and daughters-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Chaney and Mr. and Mrs. Garland Chaney and their families. She will have as her guest this weekend her cousin, Lester Albritton of Tampa.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Brewton and daughter, Mrs. Nan Cunningham, were called to Chasonton, Ga. on Tuesday because of the death of his brother, J. B. Brewton. They plan to return this weekend.

Mrs. Glenn T. Brower has accepted a position in the Pahokee post office, starting this week. Mrs. Brower is an experienced clerk, having worked there during World War II when the post office had an all-girl crew.

Mrs. J. H. Connell received word this week that her sister, Mrs. H. L. Levi of Tallahassee, has suffered another heart attack her second within the last few months.

Mrs. Harold Wilkinson entertained at her home Monday from 4:30 to 6 p.m. honoring her son Stevie on his seventh birthday. A weiner roast was a feature of the party. Prizes for games were awarded to David Beede and Don Wilkerson.

Mrs. Nae Witte of Orlando is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Josephine Arnold.

Mrs. E. D. Sims, jr. had as their guests Sunday his wife and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Woodruff of West Palm Beach.

Summertime Is Iced Tea Time

Summertime and iced tea time are synonymous with the pleasure and fun of outdoor dining. Easy-to-prepare meals that satisfy ravenous appetites and a refreshing beverage that appeases an unquenchable thirst are summertime necessities. To quench the thirst, there's nothing like iced tea. . . and for a quick and easy meal, you might like to try this Baked Bean and Canadian Bacon Casserole which can be prepared out-of-the-oven.

To make iced tea the new, easy way, pre-measure 1/4 cup loose tea. Bring 1 quart of water to a full rolling boil in a saucepan. Remove from heat and while the water is still bubbling, add all the tea at one time. Brew five minutes. Stir and strain into a pitcher or container holding 1 quart of cold water. Serve in ice-filled glasses with lemon and sugar to taste. This method requires less boiling water, less preparation time and less ice cubes.

To prepare the Baked Bean and Canadian Bacon Casserole, sauté 1 cup diced onion in 2 tablespoons of salad oil. Empty 6 cups of canned baked beans (without tomato sauce) in a 2-quart casserole. Add sautéed onions, 1 tablespoon prepared mustard, 1 teaspoon salt, a dash of tabasco, 1 tablespoon brown sugar and 1/4 cup molasses. Blend. Heat on top of stove in casserole. Sprinkle 1-2 tablespoons of brown sugar over 1 orange cut in thin slices and halved, and 8-10 slices of Canadian bacon.

Sauté in separate skillet until bacon is crisp and rims of orange ring are lightly browned. To serve, arrange a circle around the inside edge of the casserole alternating with orange and bacon slices. A crisp, crunchy cole slaw salad goes well with this dish.

Rail oddities

Railroads are hard to knock out. In a massive attack Nov. 14, 1940, four hundred German bombers made 122 hits on British rail lines at Coventry. But two days later the lines were back in operation.

During the Battle of the Bulge in Dec. 1944, artillery ammunition for our forces was delivered by railroad right to the guns.

Why not do it the easy profitable way?

You can operate your business the slow, hard way — like some of your competitors do — by plugging away without benefit of advertising, hoping against hope that customers will happen to come along and do business with you.

Or, you can operate the easy, profitable way: by advertising in GLADES OBSERVER, where your advertising:

- * Is read by a very high majority of permanent white residents in each and every Glades community.
- * Performs the job of another salesman for your business.
- * Helps build traffic to your business. Reminds Glades people they can purchase right in the Glades.
- * Moves merchandise and/or sells service for you.

Why not try a test program of advertising to the entire Glades area this summer in . . .

Avocation Is Now Full-Time Job

PAHOKEE — Edward Carver has pursued an avocation so much he's decided to give up his position with Florida Power & Light Company to make the avocation — plumbing — a full-time vocation.

Active as a scoutmaster of the crack Boy Scout Troop 28 in Pahokee, Edward Carver has been in plenty of early-morning and late-at-night hours handling plumber repair chores for persons who called upon him, aware of his previous eight years experience as a master plumber.

Now that he's again a full-time plumber, Ed won't be too surprised to get early or late calls to cope with some emergency or other, but says that'll be a keynote to his business — service at any hour.

Nor will his scouting activities diminish, Ed says. This week, for example, he's with Troop 28 on an outing at Camp Osborne, near Lake Worth.

CORN IS BIG FLORIDA $$ CROP HERE'S CONFIRMATION: SWEET

Florida sweet corn, through fast transportation and quick packaging, has grown to a $12 million-plus business during the past 10 years.

The table delicacy has always been a staple garden crop for local consumption, its special qualities being too perishable for shipment to distant markets. Modern precooling and packing in the fields, plus rapid delivery to northern markets, has now made sweet corn Florida's fifth ranking fresh vegetable crop. In 1947 the crop was worth only slightly over a million dollars, the Florida State Chamber of Commerce says.

A total production of 5,929,000 crates (5 dozen ears each) with a gross packaging value of $11,335,000 during last season is reported in this week's business review of the State Chamber's research and industrial division.

The current season, well under way, is running 13 per cent above last year with shipments of 10,634 carlots from Aug. 1, 1955 through mid-June of this year. The total value of the current season's crop will run about 10 per cent above 1954-55, but unit prices are slightly off.

CLARENCE CHEATED —

You'd think of some pretty rotten alcohol or something? You'd go ahead and remember the time only eight or ten years ago when nine prisoners at the farm did from what authorities thought was wood alcohol. You'd think your actions would stir them to reflecting on what happened that other time and what might happen again — you. You'd think they'd keep their eyes on 'til the possibility of your imbibing denatured alcohol was ruled out. Even though no whiskey smell was evident.

But, no. They stick you in solitary confinement. Rumors spread in surrounding towns that you died in the "sweet-box." Prison officials call it a solitary confinement cell. The coroner refers to it as a "sweet-box." A doctor who makes daily calls there calls it, simply, "the box."

Whatever it is, it's an enclosure some five by eight feet in size. Three solid walls and a door with a four by ten inch aperture about waist high. There's a blanket on the hard floor to lie on. And there's the running water. If the farm has to have an ultimate peak of disciplinary action, putting you in here might as well be it.

Sure, the box is hot, 'cause there's little air. If you want a whiff of outside air, or look out, you stoop or lie down on the floor to peer out through the aperture. It's your opening to the inside-outside world.

But should they put a man in your condition in solitary? They come around with chow Tuesday p.m., and note you're still alive. If the guard on duty actually does look in on you during the hours after that, nothing he does — if anything — brings a smile to your side.

The doctor comes around the following morning, about the same time he makes his routine cell-by-cell checkup. Prison officials are there, too. So is the coroner. You're stiff. You died some hours ago — without their attention.

You've got a syringe momentarily balled off figuratively. They reportedly find a small bottle of denatured alcohol in your locker. They assume it was smuggled to you by prisoners painting farm buildings.

The coroner can find no cause of death. He calls the county solicitor in West Palm Beach, who orders your body taken to a hospital where for an autopsy. The autopsy doctor finds no apparent cause of demise, sends vital organs to the FBI lab for analysis.

Society's authorities will maybe find out what caused your death. You really don't care. Even though you'd figuratively thumbed your nose at 'em, still they owed it to you to show them when the moment came that you might pass from their midst.

You're Clarence Jacks — the late Clarence Jacks.

loan of $300 from its general fund for use by the Belle Glade softball league in promoting its nocturnal recreation program, the general fund to be replenished from expected revenue from the bond issue. A heated battle ensued between Commissioners Ellis and Unwin over signing of the $300 check, before the expenditure was adopted.

Application of Winn-Dixie Stores, Inc. for a beer and wine package store license for their new Kwik Chek store was tabled, since complete reports had not been turned in by the city's inspection team.

Meanwhile, Commissioner Unwin noted that there has been no enforcement of a city ordinance requiring closing on election days all places of business selling intoxicating beverages of more than one percent alcohol.

In other action the commission: ACCEPTED with approval recommendation of Planning Board that the subdivision north and east of N. Main St. and Hillsborough Canal being designated of the $300 and associates be re-zoned from R-3 to R-1 classification.

OKAYED on second and final reading an ordinance governing size of tank trucks and amount of gasoline to be unloaded at any one time within city, and Mayor Ashley casting a "no vote" because he felt the ordinance "wouldn't hold water."

Yep, Kwik Chek Now In Belle Glade

BELLE GLADE — Kwik-Chek, a chain store organization, came to the Glades this week with the purchase of the Royal's supermarket at Clewiston, Lake Harbor and Belle Glade.

According to a statement by Marvin S. James, manager of Kwik-Chek Miami district, the Belle Glade store is the farthest west of the 51 stores in the Miami district. Plans include enlarging the Belle Glade store to 75 x 110 feet, and adjusting to standard prices and items.

The sale was said to have included the stock and fixtures, and those from the Clewiston and Lake Harbor stores have been removed to a central warehouse in Miami and the stores closed. The personnel employed at the Belle Glade store have been offered an opportunity to remain with the new owners.

'Jappy' New Scoutmaster; Troop 28 Opens Door

Ernest (Jappy) Lindrose, Jr., who recently completed the full Stream Council's Scoutmaster's training course in West Palm Beach, is now together with Louis F. Mims and Edward F. Carver, a full-fledged Scoutmaster of Pahokee Boy Scout Troop 28, according to Manning I. Keen, chairman of the local Boy Scout committee.

With the addition of trained leadership, through Lindrose's services, Troop 28, which has been a closed troop with 44 members for the past few months, is being re-opened temporarily for the admittance of 15 new boys to troop membership.

The new recruits will meet with Scoutmaster Lindrose in the Scout home at City Park every Tuesday night. Lindrose will be assisted in the organizing and conducting of tenderfoot classes for awhile by Scoutmasters Mims and Carver, who are experienced in this work.

The main body of Troop 28 will continue to meet on Friday nights in the Scout home. The two groups will join in all camping trips and other field activities.
